

Art Exhibition

Tamana S.H. Djuya

Exhibition opens
February 1, 2016

and closes
February 29, 2016

Djuya's work has various different approaches and styles. From illustration to representational, abstract to calligraphy or from words in form of alphabet or Morse code, her work is not limited to a certain style or medium.

She is an Afghan-Canadian artist who was born in Afghanistan, but raised in Germany. Her work has been exhibited in numerous lower mainland locations and has been acquired by private collectors since 2013.
